

Celebrating KSC's 50th Anniversary

International Cooperation

NASA international cooperation provides opportunities for utilization of space by NASA partners worldwide. Cooperative programs allow each participating country to contribute its special talents and facilities to a common goal. International cooperation is a cornerstone of NASA's space program today with multi-national crews living and working aboard the International Space Station.

